

Can You Be a Butterfly - Family Art Activity

Imagination Gardens

We all live in our own worlds, children's worlds are their homes, schools and families.

This project shows the inner worlds of a child's imagination open to all possibilities.

Directions:

1. Ask kids what would they like to live in~ outer space? a farm? a big city? a garden? What does it look like? Who is there? Have them close their eyes and picture it in their minds.
2. Color! Color the world they see.
3. Write out and post above the kids pictures "My world lives in me."

Curious Questions

- ~ What ways do we use our imaginations everyday? At school?
- ~ When you close your eyes, can you see what you imagine? Can you hear it? Smell it? Touch it?
- ~ What is imagination good for us?? What careers use their imaginations most? Writers? TV s? Doctors? Mechanics? Athletes?
- ~ What ways can you use your imagination today?
