

Expression - Family Art Activity

Art Family Gallery

A child's art ability can change so fast while also getting lost in piles around the house!

This project creates an art gallery where that expression can be shown in the proper venue, building self-esteem, validation and a sense of accomplishment.

Directions:

1. Choose a wall, fridge or door to be your art gallery.
2. Paint, color with crayons or markers outside edges of paper.
3. Draw an opening for the frame.
4. Cut out middle of the frame. (gently fold in half can help to cut)
5. Tape favorite pieces of art inside homemade frames.
6. Hang up in your art gallery! Change every so often after taking pictures of the gallery for future remembrances!
